

Outstanding above the rest

Staff are jumping for joy at Kiddi Caru Day Nursery in Harlow having received an outstanding Ofsted inspection report again. Back in 2006 the nursery was one of the first nurseries to achieve this award from Ofsted in the first six months of them introducing the new grading system. Grades are given on the quality of the childcare and the quality of the nursery education, receiving outstanding means both of these aspects are of an exceptionally high standard.

Ofsted described the nursery and its staff as being amazing; supporting every child so that no group or individual is disadvantaged, each child's uniqueness is recognised. Exemplary partnerships are developed with parents to ensure children's individual needs are always met to the highest standard making them feel happy and confident in their surroundings.

There are 24 staff members, of which 21 are level 3 childcare and education qualified which is far higher than the Ofsted requirements. Kelly Walker-Reid has been manager of the nursery since it opened back in 2004 is delighted with the outcome and can not praise her team enough who have the dedication and desire to offer childcare at its very best.
